Sec. 1232g

2. Criteria to distinguish records of the Intermediate Unit from the supplemental personal records of individual employees.
3. System(s) of records storage and retrieval to be used, including in what form the records will be stored, maintained, reproduced, and disposed.
4. Preservation measures to protect the integrity of records and data.
5. Data map or flow chart detailing the sources, routes, and destinations of electronic records.
6. Procedures and employee designated for determining whether an item is a record.
7. Procedures for adding, revising or deleting records and data, and any other details necessary to implement the Records Management Plan.
8. Records Retention Schedule.
9. Provisions for the storage and retrieval of records in the event of an emergency or disaster.
10. Staff positions authorized to access Intermediate Unit records.
11. Procedures to be implemented in the event of a litigation hold that immediately suspends disposition of all records relevant to the current or potential claim. Such procedures shall specify:
  - a. Who can initiate a litigation hold.
  - b. How and to whom a litigation hold is communicated.
  - c. Who will determine which records are subject to the litigation hold.
  - d. Who will be responsible for collecting and preserving such records and data.
  - e. Who will be responsible for monitoring and ensuring the Intermediate Unit's compliance with the litigation hold.
  - f. In what format the records will be collected.

When possible, records and data shall be stored in their original form, including metadata, such as creation date, author, type of file, etc.

For any record not covered by the Records Retention Schedule, the Records Management Committee shall determine how long the record shall be kept and recommend any necessary revisions to the retention schedule.

The Intermediate Unit shall maintain and dispose of records in a manner that protects any sensitive, proprietary or confidential information or individual privacy rights, and helps conserve natural resources.

Manual Records

Manual records, which include all records not stored electronically, shall be retained and disposed of in accordance with the Records Management Plan.

Manual records shall be indexed in an organized and consistent manner, reflecting the way the records will be retained and referenced for later retrieval.

The Intermediate Unit shall develop and maintain adequate and up-to-date documentation about each manual record system. Documentation may:

1. List system title and responsible employee(s) or office.
2. Define the contents of the system, including record formats.
3. Identify vital records and information.
4. Determine restrictions on access and use.

Electronic Records

Electronic records shall be retained and disposed of in the same manner as records in other formats and in accordance with the Records Management Plan.

Electronic records shall be indexed in an organized and consistent manner, reflecting the way the records will be retained and referenced for later retrieval.

The Intermediate Unit shall develop and maintain adequate and up-to-date documentation about each electronic record system. Documentation may:

1. List system title and responsible employee(s) or office.

2. Specify all technical characteristics necessary for reading or processing the records stored on the system.
3. Identify all defined inputs and outputs of the system.
4. Define the contents of the system, including records formats and database tables.
5. Identify vital records and information.
6. Determine restrictions on access and use.
7. Describe update cycles or conditions.

Email Records

Email messages, in and of themselves, do not constitute records. Retention and disposition of email messages depend on the function and content of the individual message.

Records on an email system, including messages and attachments, shall be retained and disposed of in accordance with the Intermediate Unit's Records Management Plan.

Email messages and attachments that do not meet the definition of records shall be deleted as required by the Records Management Plan.

Email records may be maintained as an electronic record or be printed and maintained as a manual record.

For each email considered to be a record, the following information shall be retained:

1. Message content.
2. Name of sender.
3. Name of recipient.
4. Date and time of transmission and/or receipt.
